Bishop Frederick Campbell identified St. John Fisher as the patron saint of The Catholic Foundation because of his stewardship of endowments. The objective of the St. John Fisher Stewards is to be a volunteer of the parish, school, or ministry – promoting the growth of endowments through collaboration with The Catholic Foundation's awareness and service initiatives.

Steward benefits

- Installation blessing at an annual Mass
- An annual luncheon and training
- St. John Fisher identification lapel pin
- Announcement in the Catholic Times, The Catholic Foundation Annual Report and website
- Invitations to participate in The Catholic Foundation’s topical conversations and spiritual discussions

Stewardship – it’s not just about giving money. It’s about giving everything.

Role of a St. John Fisher Stewards

- Scheduling and facilitating endowment awareness initiatives including gatherings, bulletin announcements and inserts, letters, and individual meetings
- Identifying events for the promotion and awareness of endowments
- Coordinate materials at events and in spaces such as vestibules where information is shared
- Periodically update the Pastor and The Catholic Foundation on the parish endowment awareness initiatives
- Provide periodical updates of awareness initiative successes to the parish, school, ministry and The Catholic Foundation
- Identifying parishioners, alumni, and/or benefactors who may be at the right time in their life to know more about how to support endowments through the services of The Catholic Foundation
- Identifying those with expertise in financial services that may be interested in learning more about The Catholic Foundation’s Professional Advisor Program (PAG)
- When available, be a presence at events by displaying endowment awareness materials, answering questions, and referring to The Catholic Foundation staff for technical service

Let’s talk

About Us
The Catholic Foundation’s mission is to inspire giving and assist donors to provide for the long-term needs of the 23-county Diocese of Columbus. The Catholic Foundation is one of the oldest and largest Catholic foundations in the country, distributing nearly $150 million throughout the diocese since 1985.

Why Us
The Catholic Foundation offers a way to leave a legacy uniquely aligned with Catholic values and beliefs. Additionally, the Foundation invests all funds in accordance with the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops guidelines for Socially Responsible Investments.
