2016 ANNUAL REPORT

CELEBRATING THE YEAR OF MERCY

A LETTER FROM OUR BISHOP

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

The Holy Father has called us to this Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy. He prayed, may the Mother of God open our eyes, so that we may comprehend the task to which we have been called and may she obtain for us the grace to experience this Jubilee of Mercy as faithful and fruitful witnesses of Christ.

From its beginning over 30 years ago, and especially this past year, The Catholic Foundation has been an expression of the faithful and fruitful witnesses of Christ for the needs in our Diocese of Columbus.

The Catholic Foundation was established to encourage generous faithful Catholics to support these ongoing needs by sharing their own resources through an endowment fund. Even when we are no longer present in the earthly world, an endowment fund allows us to continue to share our gifts and help to grow the faith. Consider the message of the Gospel according to Luke, "Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful."

In honor of this Year of Mercy, I encourage you to consider a gift to an endowment fund at The Catholic Foundation and allow your generosity to proclaim the faith far into the future.

May God continue to bless and keep you. With every best wish, I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

MOST REVEREND
FREDERICK F. CAMPBELL, D.D., PH.D.

OUR MISSION

In Christ, The Catholic Foundation inspires giving and assists donors to provide for the long-term needs of the Diocese of Columbus.

OUR FOUR PILLARS

The Catholic Foundation focuses its funding in four pillars of our Catholic faith: Parish Life, Catholic Education & Faith Formation, Social Services and Vocations.

KEEP YOUR GIFTS IN OUR FAITH

The Catholic Foundation is the only foundation in the Diocese of Columbus that invests your gifts in alignment with the teachings of the Catholic Church. Our portfolios follow the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops investment policies, and we carefully screen all charitable organizations that we fund to make sure they also follow Catholic teachings.

A LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT & CEO

Dear Friends,

As I reflect on an outstanding year of many blessings, I'm once again humbled by the support of our Catholic community. In just these past 5 years, nearly $100 million have come into The Catholic Foundation, including over $24 million of contributions this year.

Additionally, in this Year of Mercy, the Foundation distributed 1,360 grants amounting in over $10 million to support our four pillars: Parish Life, Vocations, Catholic Education and Social Services. This is truly a testament to the faithful in our diocese strengthening their commitment to keeping their gifts in the faith.

While we are blessed by this charity and support, the true value of these funds is demonstrated through the lives we are able to touch and the resulting impact here in the Diocese. God's real mercy, His blessings, are upon the souls touched by the fruits through The Catholic Foundation. Those souls, they are the poor and hungry, the homeless, the imprisoned, those wanting to learn, wanting to be healed, and those wanting to live a life in Jesus Christ. And, these souls are touched, loved, and cared for, through corporal and spiritual works of the many parishes, schools, and ministries in our diocese.

For example, 25 parishes will receive funding through The Catholic Foundation to hire youth ministers. In just the next 5 years, over 15,000 young souls from these parishes will build a relationship with Jesus Christ and carry that relationship with them for the rest of their lives. Additionally, in this year alone, grants that help support adult faith formation programs will touch the souls of 72,000 individual adults in the diocese. Funding from The Catholic Foundation to help support just three diocesan seminarians, the supposed average in an ordination class, will bring God's mercy to more than 250,000 parishioner souls from those future priests over the next 25 years.

Funding from The Catholic Foundation for the corporal works of mercy of St. Vincent de Paul Clothing Center will provide 25,000 pairs of underwear just this year, and support for St. Lawrence Haven will provide over 2 million meals to the souls who are poor, homeless and hungry in the next 25 years.

I would like to extend my gratitude to you for your continued support of our Catholic faith through The Catholic Foundation. We hope it is evident that your gifts are helping to ignite transformational change. I encourage you to consider how best to support your parish or Catholic ministry, and the role that the Foundation can play in your giving plan. With your help and with Christ as our guide, The Catholic Foundation will continue to be a resource for the future of our faith and our diocese.

In Christ,

LOREN P. BROWN

OUR PATRON SAINT ST. JOHN FISHER

St. John Fisher was the Bishop of Rochester and Chancellor of Cambridge. He was executed by King Henry VIII for actively opposing the king's divorce and for refusing to take the oath of succession acknowledging Henry as the legitimate heir to the throne. His feast day is June 22.

St. John Fisher was dedicated to the welfare of his diocese and his university. He was named proctor of Cambridge University, and appointed confessor to Lady Margaret Beaufort, mother of Henry VII. He became closely associated with her endowments at Cambridge, where he also created scholarships, introduced Greek and Hebrew into the curriculum and brought in the world-famous Erasmus as a professor of Divinity and Greek.

St. John Fisher was named the patron saint of The Catholic Foundation by Bishop Campbell.

LET THE WORD OF CHRIST DWELL IN YOU: SHARING CHRIST'S LOVE WITH OUR YOUTH

A beacon of light overlooks a stretch of Mound Street, deep in the Hilltop of Columbus. Outreach ministries pepper the area and an adjacent park offers a space for children to play; this is an area not at all forgotten by God. In fact, St. Agnes Catholic Church boasts a growing parish community, highlighted by a flourishing youth ministry program.

"The Catholic Foundation helped St. Agnes Parish show the love of Christ by giving us the resources that enable us to feed the mind, body and soul of our young people," said Cindy Oddi, Youth Minister/Catechetical Leader at St. Agnes Parish, St. Aloysius Parish and St. Mary Magdalene Parish.

In a parish community that is 98% Hispanic, youth ministry looks much different than it might in other parish communities, Cindy explained. Transportation and other financial strains make it difficult for families to commit to weekly youth activities. Instead, Cindy makes sure to connect with them through social media or in small groups, in addition to meeting as a larger group after Mass.

Two sisters, Daniella and Emily, find a way to participate in as many youth activities as possible.

"For the older youth, we're giving them the opportunity to take on leadership positions," Cindy said.

Daniella, a high school sophomore, frequently helps with the Children's Liturgy of the Word and hopes to also train to become an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion.

"It's really special. I like giving [Eucharist] out to other people," she explained.

Emily, a fourth grader, enjoys making new friends and helping others. At St. Agnes's Works of Mercy Camp this summer, the children helped to make sandwiches for St. Lawrence Haven, as well as rosaries and sit-upons for the homeless. They heard from many guest speakers, including Yeison "Yayyooo" Berdugo, a motivational speaker for youth.

"The best part of camp was when Yeison came," Emily said. "He talked about what we want to be when we grow up."

"The youth ministry program at St. Agnes hopes to give youth the tools to become tomorrow's leaders, and to become active, participating members of the parish and the community at large," Cindy added.

The parish is growing, and along with that, participation in Mass is increasing. Since receiving a grant for a full-time youth minister last year, the number of registered youth increased 40%, from 89 to 125, and regular Mass attendance of the youth increased by 50%. Additionally, the number of youth attending PSR classes increased by 82%, from 22 children to 40.

Mercy is in motion, with God ever-present in this community. St. Agnes Catholic Church shines on Mound Street, His light radiating from its doors.

"It's really special. I like giving Eucharist out to other people ..."

The Catholic Foundation, in partnership with the Diocesan Office for Youth and Young Adult Ministry, awarded Youth Ministry grants to five parishes in the inaugural year of the program. Looking back on the first year, the overall outcomes for youth within these five parishes are astounding.

HE HEALS THE BROKENHEARTED: FAITH COMFORTS A MOTHER'S SORROW

† An old farmhouse sits upon a hill in Newark, overlooking sprawling fields and a beautiful landscape. The area is mostly quiet, save for the song of a Mockingbird and a gentle breeze rustling the trees. It is easy to feel God's presence through the warmth of the sun's golden rays.

"I've lived here my entire life," explained Sara Vogelmeier, as she gazed out the window. "I went to Blessed Sacrament School and also went to Blessed Sacrament Church for the past 30 years."

In 2013, Sara endured a tremendous test of her faith. At eight months pregnant, she was in a serious car accident and was rushed to the hospital where she delivered her son, Nathan. Sara spent the next 18 hours with her child, knowing he would not survive.

"I had to look to my faith to help make me stronger," she said. "And I had to look to God to help get me through this."

In the days, weeks and months that followed, Sara searched for a way to heal and a way to honor Nathan's brief life.

"We decided to set up a fund in memory of my son," she said. "It's a gift that will help other families with the cost of Catholic school, as we would have been paying for Nathan's tuition."

Last September, Sara established the Nathan Fitzsimmons Vogelmeier Endowment Fund to provide tuition assistance to families of Blessed Sacrament Parish for a child or children attending Blessed Sacrament Elementary School.

"The Catholic Foundation helped me show the love of Christ by being able to send a child to Blessed Sacrament School in my son's name," Sara said.

Though God continues to heal her soul, Sara takes comfort in knowing that this gift ensures Nathan's memory will endure forever. As she gazed again out the window, light illuminated a corner of her living room, sprinkled with dolls and the toys of Nathan's little sister.

For this child I prayed. 1 Samuel 1:27

“The Catholic Foundation helped me show the love of Christ by being able to send a child to Blessed Sacrament School in my son’s name.”

CAST FIRE UPON THE EARTH: KINDLING THE FLAME IN OUR SPIRITUAL HEARTS

† Saint Teresa of Kolkata once said, “Love begins at home.” She emphasized that we should care for those closest to us first – those in our own home. Similarly, evangelization also begins at home – first, in our own spiritual hearts, next with our families, and then in our parish homes. As we grow in our own spirituality, an evangelization of ourselves, we are then able to go forth and spread the Gospel, as we are called to do in the New Evangelization. As such, adult faith formation is an indispensable part of evangelization.

“Spiritual growth is very personal, and what might make sense for one person or parish, might not work for another,” said Amy Parker, VP of Grants and Diocesan Partnerships at The Catholic Foundation. “We encourage parishes to propose a program that best meets the needs of their parishioners, and we work to help support them from a financial perspective.”

Last year, St. Mary Queen of the Missions in Waverly received a grant for a subscription to FORMED, a website that offers faith formation resources for both the parish and individual. The grant benefited all parishes of the consortium of St. Peter (Chillicothe), St. Mary Queen of the Missions (Waverly), St. Colman of Cloyne (Washington Courthouse) and St. Sylvester (Zaleski) by providing access to the website.

“It is wonderful to have this website,” said Robin Flannagan, a parishioner at St. Peter

Parish. “We use the YDisciple program with our youth ministry and Symbolon with our RCIA participants. If someone misses a session, they can catch up online.”

Robin also uses the FORMED website for her personal study. She and four other women in the parish started their own bible study using The Bible and the Virgin Mary materials from the site. This allowed them to meet in their homes, at a time convenient to the small group.

“The kids are there, too, so they see their parents studying the faith with their friends,” she said. “It’s a good witness to the kids.”

Through the group, as well as her individual reflections and study, Robin became hungry to learn more about Mary. She watched some of the available movies and downloaded several of the books on the site to aid her in her spiritual growth in the Catholic faith. This eventually led her to discern her call to the Consecration of Mary through the Secular Order of Franciscans. As her spiritual heart grows and strengthens, Robin is able to share her faith with those closest to her – at the homes of the women in her bible study, at her parish home with fellow Church members, and even with her sister who is now exploring the Catholic faith through RCIA.

“It helps me talk to my Protestant friends about our relationship with Mary,” Robin said. “It helps me evangelize.”

“It helps me talk to my Protestant friends about our relationship with Mary ... it helps me evangelize.”

The St. Martha Giving Circle is open to any woman who, regardless of age or background, wants to have a meaningful impact on the Catholic community. The women contribute a minimum of $100 in order to recommend grants, but a contribution is not required to participate in fellowship activities. Women who give at the $1,000 level or higher receive designation in the Founder's Circle. For more information, visit catholic-foundation.org/TheMarthas.

CLOTHE YOURSELVES WITH HEARTFELT MERCY: CREATING SOLIDARITY AMONG WOMEN

† In March 2014, an impassioned group of women gathered in the Ruth Lang Room at The Catholic Foundation. The room was filled to capacity, with women seated on windowsills and in extra chairs along the walls. A feeling of excitement filled the air as the group learned about a new initiative called the St. Martha Giving Circle. Together they prayed, Holy St. Martha, be with me as I too seek to do that which pleases our Lord.

"We were overwhelmed by the response," said Amy Parker, VP of Grants & Diocesan Partnerships. "It was both uplifting and inspiring."

The Women's Philanthropy Institute at Indiana University's Lilly Family School of Philanthropy identifies six characteristics of women's giving habits. Women give with the intent to create, change, commit, connect, collaborate and celebrate. The Catholic Foundation formed the St. Martha Giving Circle with the hopes of supporting those desires. The Marthas, as the women are called, engage in various activities to learn about charitable organizations in the Diocese of Columbus and to give back through time, talent or treasure.

"I joined the St. Martha Giving Circle because I really connected with the mission of a group of women committed to supporting causes important to women in the community," explained Subha Lembach, a parishioner at St. Timothy Parish and a Martha since 2014.

Over the last two years, the Marthas served with Catholic Social Services and Cristo Rey High School, they learned of the many ministries in the Diocese through panel discussions, they collected garments for unemployed women trying to re-enter the workforce, and they laughed and cried together as they listened to a heart-warming talk by an inspirational Catholic speaker. Most notably, however, in the last two years the St. Martha Giving Circle Fund provided for 12 grants totaling more than $50,000 – all with funds that the women contributed.

"Perry County is a needy location and the monthly income for our St. Vincent de Paul Society rarely goes over $1000. For this reason, we have had to reduce the amount given to clients and the amount we give each month," said Mary Dodd, a parishioner at St. Rose of Lima, St. Vincent de Paul Society member and a Martha since 2014. "The grant we received funded one month of utility co-payments."

Driven by the desire to serve others, as Martha served, the women often recommend grants to ministries that provide corporal works of mercy. In addition to the St. Vincent de Paul Society of Perry County, 2016 grant recipients included Back in His Arms Again, which helps families with burial and grieving after infant loss; Women's Care Center, which provides pregnancy support to mothers and families; St. Vincent Haven, which provides shelter for homeless men; and Hope Hollow, which provides accommodations and support for adults traveling to Columbus for cancer treatment. Additionally, the Christ Child Society, a 2015 and 2016 grant recipient, serves at-risk children and provides layettes and clothing for infants.

"The Catholic Foundation's St. Martha Giving Circle allows me to show the love of Christ by supporting organizations within our diocese with like-minded, driven women," said Jeanne Braxton, a parishioner at St. Dominic Parish and a Martha since 2014.

Guided by the Holy Spirit, the Marthas work together to create new solutions, accelerate positive change in the Catholic community, commit to service and philanthropy, connect with those in need, collaborate with Catholic-minded women and celebrate their successes. And, as the group grows and evolves, they keep in mind the Gospel of John, which states: "Martha served."

FINANCIAL DISCLOSURES

The Foundation of the Catholic Diocese of Columbus (the Foundation) was incorporated in 1984 and organized as an Ohio non-profit corporation. The Foundation's purpose is to receive gifts and bequests and to dedicate their use primarily for religious, educational and charitable activities in connection with and for the benefit of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Columbus. All authority of the Foundation is vested in and exercised by its Board of Trustees.

ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial statements of the Foundation are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and, accordingly, reflect all significant receivables, payables, and other liabilities. The Foundation is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets. Temporarily restricted net assets consist of funds restricted by time or purpose by the donors to support program activities. Permanently restricted net assets consist of restricted funds for investment that are to be held in perpetuity with income available to support donor advised and general operating purposes.

AGENCY FUNDS

The Foundation is required to record contributions from donors for the benefit of a beneficiary specified by the donor as agency funds. The Foundation is the recipient foundation that acts as an agent for a beneficiary if it agrees to solicit assets from potential donors specifically for the beneficiary's use and to distribute those assets or the return from investing those assets to the beneficiary.

INVESTMENT POOLS

The Foundation utilizes common investment pools to manage most of its investments. The earnings from investments (interest and dividends) as well as investment gains and losses of the pools are allocated to the individual fund according to its percentage of ownership of the investment pool.

DISTRIBUTION POLICY

The Foundation's distribution policy is to distribute an amount up to 5% of the average market value over 12 rolling quarters.

ANNUITIES AND CHARITABLE REMAINDER TRUSTS

The Foundation administers various charitable annuity and remainder trust agreements with donors. The arrangements provide for agreed upon distributions over a designated period of time (usually the designated beneficiary's lifetime or a term of years). A liability has been recorded equal to the present value of the estimated future obligation. This obligation amount includes the present value of all anticipated payments to the donors based on their life expectancy or a term of year. The Foundation revalues this liability annually.

TAX STATUS

The Foundation is a publicly supported charitable organization that is exempt from federal and state taxes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.
